

Windsor / West Hants

Wake up and enjoy the early morning sunshine as you hang some clothes on the line to dry. Eat breakfast on your covered back deck before heading to the golf club to play a round of golf with your friends, who are also your neighbours! At the end of the day, stop into your favourite craft brewery for a cold beer. Return home to make dinner – all with fresh ingredients from the local farm market. You will appreciate each moment when you retire in West Hants.

The Valley Garden Home Collection is available in two communities in West Hants, The Crossing and The Meadows.

LOCATION

The Municipality of the District of West Hants is located at the gateway to the beautiful Annapolis Valley – home to scenic hiking trails, stunning views, and award-winning wineries. The area allows retirees to welcome a change of pace from crowded city streets while maintaining close proximity to Bedford, Halifax, and the Halifax Stanfield International Airport.

RECREATION

West Hants acts as a hub of recreation for its residents. The area boasts an 18-hole golf course, ski hill, tennis courts, indoor and outdoor pools, hiking/walking trails, and more – allowing residents to stay active and enjoy each season to the fullest.

CULTURE

West Hants has a rich history and strong cultural presence that can be readily enjoyed. Take in a play at Quick as A Wink Theatre Society or Kings Edgehill School, watch international performers at the Mermaid Theatre, or visit a local museum such as the Windsor Hockey Heritage Museum.

CUISINE

Whether you're looking for authentic wood fired pizza, Italian cuisine, down home cooking, or pub food – there is a restaurant nearby to satisfy your craving! Residents can sit back and enjoy a glass of fine wine at a local winery or a cold beer at a craft brewery, have a three-course meal on the ocean floor, or stop at a farm market to gather fresh produce. There are endless options to dine out and sample local products, all within 10 minutes of your new home.

Annapolis Valley

Wake up and breathe in the fresh ocean air. Meet up with a friend and spend the morning hiking Cape Split and enjoying breathtaking views. After your hike, head to the farm market and enjoy a locally produced lunch while listening to live music. Return home and read a few chapters of your favourite book in the sunshine on your covered back porch. Finish the day with a glass of wine at one of many award-winning wineries in the region. The options are endless, when you retire in the Annapolis Valley.

The Valley Garden Home Collection is available in several unique communities across the Annapolis Valley, including Falmouth, Windsor, Kentville, and Port Williams.

LOCATION

The Annapolis Valley spans from Windsor to Digby and is home to the world's highest tides. Our communities are strategically placed, allowing residents to live peacefully while remaining within close proximity of the province's capital city, Halifax.

RECREATION

There is no shortage of things to do in the Annapolis Valley! Whether you're looking for a round of golf, game of tennis, scenic hiking, cycling trail, or a sunset walk on the beach – the options are endless. If you're feeling adventurous, you can go on a whale watching excursion, attend the Eagle Watch in Sheffield Mills, or join one of many wine tours.

CULTURE

The Annapolis Valley boasts a variety of cultural experiences. There are many museums, forts, and historic sites to visit in the area – such as Grand-Pre National Historic Site. The annual 6-day Devour Film Fest celebrates filmmakers and high-profile chefs from around the world, and the Acadia Performing Arts Series features celebrated national and international performers. Residents can also enjoy the talents of local actors and musicians at venues across the Valley.

CUISINE

The Annapolis Valley offers extraordinary culinary experiences for those who enjoy great food and supporting local. Farm markets offer fresh, organic, and grass-fed items and you will see local products, both food and beverage, on the menu at your favourite pubs and fine-dining restaurants. Annapolis Valley has made a name for itself as an up-and-coming wine region, and deservedly so, as local wineries have produced over 200 international and national award-winning wines. There are also a variety of craft breweries and cideries, which use local fruit, in the area.

